Congratulations for taking the next step in your journey!

I want to thank you for buying a copy of Alpha Chick and reading it.

I shared my personal and painful story with you so you would understand that I have walked in your shoes and experienced many of the same traumatic and emotionally depleting situations. I hope that I have been successful and you are now ready to take the next steps in your journey. I now realize that the path I traveled has brought me to help you to become an Alpha Chick and create the life you desire.

I believe from my deepest inner core that if you practice The Five Steps of Faith, you can overcome your negative forces and painful challenges. Your transformation begins when you have the courage to honestly examine your beliefs and addictive behaviors. If you take the time to ask yourself poignant and revealing questions, your subconscious will make room for the answers. You will emerge from a self-imposed bondage of the past, flourish in the present moment and create the future of your dreams.

Alpha means beginning and indeed at the beginning of our creation we were all given this divine presence and energy. Unfortunately most of us are unaware that exists or not taught how to access it. The Five Steps of Faith will reconnect you to this higher power, your divine inner knowing.

I continue to use these steps daily to create the miraculous life I have. Nothing is beyond your reach when you energetically align yourself with your new beliefs. You realize you have the ability to break through your fears, move past your hopelessness and have everything you desire.

Live faithfully,

Mal

Step 1: Focus

I focus my consciousness daily on the Divine Presence within through a spiritual practice.

Engage in a form of prayer or meditation daily.

1. Sit quietly and take several deep cleansing breathes. On the inhale breath you are bringing in positive energy and on the exhale you release stress, anger or hurtful feeling.
2. Close your eyes and create in your mind your sanctuary where you feel safe and completely at peace. It may be a garden or a beautiful little room. Personalize it with surroundings that comfort you. See yourself happily present in this sanctuary. You may also want to create a small alter with cherished little items that you have acquired.
3. Start with a simple word Mantra. It can be any word that you choose that inspires a sense of spiritual essence for you. Keep repeating the word for five minutes. You are trying to clear your unconscious mind. If thoughts race into your mind just return to your safe place and your Mantra. Many use "Om" a universal word for God.
4. Everyday add a few more minutes to your spiritual practice.
5. Record Notes.

What could I add to my safe sanctuary?

What thoughts keep running through my mind?

Did I receive any inspired actions?

Additional Notes:

Step 2: Acceptance and Attitude

To accept disappointments, fear, and sorrows so I may free myself from a past that no longer serves me, and to consciously change my attitude so that I may live the joyous life that is always available to me.

Are you prepared to release your past beliefs of unworthiness, suffering and gut wrenching anger?

1. What is the first thing that comes to mind that you need to stop resisting and accept as is?

2. Breathe deeply and state:

I accept _____

I accept _____

I accept _____

I love myself completely for accepting that _____ happened and I now choose to leave it in the past.

I embrace who I am today and forgive all my mistakes.

3. Identify your most nagging negative attitudes.

Step 3: Identify and Intention

I identify negative behaviors that block my potential and set intentions for positive actions.

1. Get your Attraction Quadrant sheet (Page 7 Action Guide)
2. Identify three things you want to change in each quadrant
3. Identify three new intentions for each quadrant
4. Daily set one new intention in each quadrant

We set intentions because they are more powerful than setting a goal. Intentions have your soul behind them compared to a goal which is wishful thinking.

1. How did you feel after completing the assignment for the quadrant sheet?

2. What painful realizations did you come to that you were not aware of before?

Step 4: Thoughts

I shift my thoughts to the present when I revert to past negative thoughts and feelings

1. Pick three new activities that will help you change your thinking patterns.

A. _____

B. _____

C. _____

2. What specific things that you think about make you feel good?

3. What thoughts do you recognize as your most frequent self-defeating thoughts?

4. Are these thoughts linked to your past rather than your present situation?

5. What can you do to resolve these things/thoughts in your mind?

6. Do you need to forgive yourself or someone else to feel better and change your thinking?

7. Write three new affirmations for yourself.

8. Start your vision folder by adding all the things you would like to create in your life.

Step 5: Helping

I heal by reaching out and sharing my journey with others, especially those in need.

If you have been working the steps faithfully, you should start to feel that you are getting your personal power back. You are accepting and releasing your past mistakes and the people that caused you pain. You now know that your true identity, the divine essence that you were born with has nothing to do with any person, place or thing from the past. You now experience a new belief system. You have the ability to create the life you desire. As an Alpha Chick, you share this knowledge and help other women to tap into their power. To continue to heal, you must reach out and help others with their journey.

1. What is the one activity of service to others that you can add to your list?

2. How do you think this will make you feel?

3. Identify one person you know personally that you could do something for that would make a difference in their life.

4. List one activity that you feel empowers you.
