Ladies: It's Time to Remove the Veils of Pain, Shame and Self-Doubt that are Smothering Your Inner Light!

You've spent long enough hidden behind the layers of energetic veils that separate you from the truth of who you are. You've been viewing life from behind the safety of these energetic veils but the reality is the more layers you have created, the less of your inner light can shine thru.

It's time for you to fully release the deep pain, shame and regret of past actions, traumas and self-judgment that leave you feeling disconnected from the truth of who you are! Holding on to the energetic layers of guilt, shame and self-condemnation keeps you from stepping through the veil to the truth about who you are – a radiant, divine woman of strength, love and wisdom that deserves to live a life of joy, love and inner peace.

Step Through the Veil!

It's time to experience life on the other side of the veil. Many women have shared that they had received numerous inner nudges and glimpses of what their life could be like on the other side but they felt frozen in fear or stuck in what was because they couldn't see the 'how's'. The Restoring Self Worth Formula will help you to STEP through to the other side.

It's time to listen to your truth/inner essence instead of the self-sabotaging fears and negative scripts that have been running (and sabotaging) the vision you hold for your life.

To honor my soul's purpose, today I work with heart-centered women like you, supporting them in stepping through the layers of energetic veils of pain, shame and self-condemnation so they too can live their truth.

I've walked the walk and intimately understand the feelings, fears and shame that are holding you back from living authentically.

I look forward to supporting you on your journey of healing and self-discovery.

Mal Duane

Self Esteem + Self Care + Inner Happiness = The Self Worth Formula

The Self Worth Formula is about letting go of the past and regaining your passion and purpose for life. It's for any woman who is unhappy, suffering, or in pain. When we are conscious of cultivating self worth, self-care and inner happiness in our daily lives, we can begin the process of recovery.

The Self Worth Formula is for you if you feel any of these apply:

- You feel smothered by the debris of emotional wounds that have occurred from childhood trauma, broken relationships, addiction or divorce.
- Underneath the 'happy' mask you wear each day, the truth is you feel a sense of sadness, self-doubt and non- fulfillment that leaves you feeling like a fraud.
- You struggle with the false belief that you do not deserve to be happy due to past behaviors and mistakes.
- You give, give, and give until you are an empty vessel leaving you feeling depleted, overwhelmed and resentful.
- Your life is a pattern of self-sabotaging behaviors ... appearing as a relationship, money, addiction or other self-sabotaging issue.
- Your self-worth is tied into the validation of others, putting you on a never-ending self-worth rollercoaster.
- You consistently feel scattered, overwhelmed and energetically disconnected from the present moment (either ruminating in the past or worrying about the future).
- You are unable to clearly define what you want (goals, desires, intentions), leaving you unable to move forward in creating change in your life.

In The Self Worth Formula Guide, you'll discover how to daily cultivate self- worth, self-care and inner happiness. You'll set intentions, learn how to forgive yourself and transform your current attitude. This formula for life will help you:

- Shatter limiting beliefs in yourself
- Rediscover and connect with your true passion in life
- Open your heart and allow self-love, self-compassion and peace to transform your heart, as well as your life
- Reconnect with and learn to trust your inner wisdom
- Accept the truth that you are not the mistakes of your past, but a woman who is meant to live a life full of passion, purpose and joy
- Learn the proven five-step process that incorporates spirituality, self-discovery and living with intention

You've spent long enough hidden behind the layers of energetic veils that separate you from the truth of who you are. Are you ready to experience life on the other side of the veil? Then let's get started.

Self Esteem + Self Care + Inner Happiness = the Self Worth Formula

Acceptance + Positive Attitude = Self Worth

Throughout our lives, as women, we have found ourselves at times paralyzed by our fears: fear of failure, fear of success, rejection, loss, loneliness, pain, loss of safety, security, and affection, estrangement, separation – the list goes on. We find ourselves willing to endure our pain because we are afraid; our instinct is to protect ourselves from the risks of change.

But we can come to realize that we are not powerless, worthless individuals at the mercy of the judgment of others. Our happiness is not dependent upon the actions or perceptions of anyone else. We must accept responsibility for the unhealthy conditions that surround us and restore our personal power. You'll begin here, by identifying issues, learning to accept yourself for who you are and forgiving yourself for your mistakes.

Begin with setting daily intentions to consciously recognize your self worth. Do this as part of your journaling or spiritual practice, as discussed in the 5 Steps of FAITH at the end of this guide:

How can you accept yourself more fully today?

How is your attitude today? And how can you change it to reflect a more positive one?

What do you need to do to forgive yourself for today?

Denial + Silence = Continued Suffering

By not recognizing our pain and talking about it, we cannot heal. Silence is our worst enemy for personal recovery. Whether it is with a therapist, a pastor or a trusted friend, share your guilt with someone who will not judge you. Shame only survives in secrecy. Own your story so it doesn't own you.

Beliefs = Reality

Additionally, we can direct our energies and recognize our personal gains. Nothing and no one can take them away from us. We can gain strength from our experiences. And as we learn to believe in ourselves, we learn through our pain, we accept or reject our burdens, and grow beyond our fears. We can be unafraid in a world where there is much work to do, truth to seek and love to give and enjoy. Be conscious of the fact that others' opinions or perceptions are not your reality.

What beliefs do you have today that came from someone else?

What opinion of you that someone else has do you find untrue?

Can you identify something you were told as a child that you know today to be true?

Self Esteem + Self Care + Inner Happiness = The Self Worth Formula

Right Actions + Right Attitude = Self Care

Love is an inside job. You can't replace it with a substance or a person. No one can love you better than you. You know yourself and your deepest desires. You know the truth about you. You know the good and the bad. The relationship you have with yourself will be the most important one in your life. Make it a loving, respectful and nurturing one.

What actions can you take today to improve your self care?

Intention + Action = Accomplishment

Self-love starts with good self care, eating healthily and honoring your body. Think of it as a temple for the magnificent soul within you. If you think of yourself this way, it is easier to stop many of your bad habits.

Treat yourself to something nice every week. Maybe a movie or a manicure? If you don't treat yourself nicely, do you think anyone else will?

Set intentions as part of your journaling or spiritual practice to take care of you.

What action steps can you take today to take care of yourself in a physical capacity?

Motivation + Discipline = Change

Motivation is necessary in life to gain the things you desire. You need to take the initiative, be accountable and realize that you have the ability to do and to choose as you please. Whether it is a job promotion that you're after, or a better financial state for your family, none of this will happen without the motivation and discipline needed to achieve your goals.

Identify a goal or goals that you wish to accomplish:

What can you do on a daily basis to achieve your goals?

Authenticity + Service = Empowerment

The practice of self-care over a period of time creates a stronger, self-loving, confident woman that becomes a better contributor in everything she does. You will notice over time that your relationships, employment and physical demeanor all become measurably improved. You will feel confident and centered in all that you do. When you begin to feel this way, it's time to share with others in need what you have mastered. By giving to others, you become stronger. The more you help others, the more authentic and compassionate you will become in your own life.

Who could you help to become a more self-loving and confident woman?

Self Esteem + Self Care + Inner Happiness = The Self Worth Formula

Inner happiness means being balanced and not living in judgment. When happiness is not based on anything outside of you, you have reached an enlightened consciousness. You no longer strive for perfectionism; instead, you live authentically, filled with gratitude for all that you have at this moment. Some key components for inner happiness are:

Forgiveness = Freedom

Why is it we struggle with forgiving others as well as ourselves? Forgiveness is to free you from the bondage of your suffering. Forgiveness is not about forgetting or dismissing, it's releasing you from being the victim of a circumstance.

Who can you forgive today to free yourself?

Journaling + Honesty = Awareness

One of the most powerful things you can do to support personal growth and transformation is to start a practice of daily journaling. You may not tell yourself the truth but when you write in a journal the truth will flow from your heart and soul. Writing can be a process of emptying your most troubling thoughts from your mind to paper. With practice, you will develop an extraordinary clarity about your life. So, invest in a pretty journal for yourself. Make it your private notebook for your most intimate thoughts.

Meditation = Well Being

The greatest thing you can do for yourself is to start a practice of meditation. Combine this with journaling and you will start to discover the magnificent woman you really are. Under the debris of life and emotional scars is a soul just waiting to emerge? When you shut down the nasty little voice of the constant egotistical chatter in your head, your divine higher guidance will shine through. Your biggest challenges will become the stepping stones to your greatest accomplishments. A powerful light will illuminate your path and show you the way.

Vision + Imagination = Well-Being

Creative Imagination is simply fueling that vision of yours with powerful, real images. What you focus on is what you create in life. Want a new house? Start cutting out all the pictures in magazines of the houses you like. But don't stop there. Make sure you grab kitchens and bathrooms, draperies and anything else you want to add. The more images you have, the clearer the vision that is imprinted on your brain. How much fun is that?

You can even build an online vision board on Pinterest. Create as many boards as you like; your dream house, inspirational quotes on Faith, your dream guy, places you'd like to travel. Then visit it every day and add new pins and reflect and pray for what you desire.

Celebrate your victories!!! When something on your vision board comes true, check it off, cross it out, and say thank you to the universe!! Maybe a health problem cleared up or you found an online course to get you closer to your dreams! Whatever "appears", show your gratitude.

The three keys of the formula are simple but powerful. If you commit to working with them, you will see significant changes taking place in your life.

If you would like to discover how to work the process at a deeper level for more inner personal growth, please request a free, 15-minute session.

I have also included in this guide for you the 5 Steps of FAITH, my original process from Alpha Chick, which helps you move from pain to empowerment.

Principles of FAITH:

The foundation of The Self Worth Formula is supported by the 5 Steps of FAITH, Mal Duane's proprietary process for moving from pain to power.

Step one: Focus

Step two: Acceptance & Attitude

Step three: Identification & Intention

Step four: Thoughts

Step five: Helping & Healing

Faith is the ground beneath your feet. Faith is the opposite of the fear that has been controlling your life for so long. Faith begins with starting a spiritual practice. You may not see immediate changes but you feel them. You will experience an inner peace and connection to a limitless power within you.

A spiritual practice is something you create personally that is specific to you. There is no right or wrong way to do this. It's a personal experience that you make your own.

Combining these Principles of Faith with The Self Worth Formula will help you to live life to its fullest, release you from past scars and hurts, and enable you to begin to live with intention.

Step 1. Focus

I focus my consciousness daily on "the Divine Presence within" through a Spiritual practice.

Engage in a form of prayer or meditation daily

1. Sit quietly, and take several deep- cleansing breaths. On the inhale breath you bring in positive energy and on the exhale you release stress, anger or hurtful feelings.
2. Close your eyes and create in your mind your sanctuary where you feel safe and completely at peace. It may be a garden or a beautiful little room. Personalize it with surroundings that comfort you. See yourself happily present in this sanctuary. You may also want to create a small altar with cherished little items that you have acquired.
3. Start with a simple word Mantra. It can be any word that you choose that inspires a sense of spiritual essence for you. Keep repeating the word for five minutes. You are trying to clear your unconscious mind. If thoughts race into your mind, just return to your safe place and your Mantra. Many use "Om", a universal word for God.
4. Every day add a few more minutes to your spiritual practice.
5. Record notes.

What could I add to my safe sanctuary?

What thoughts keep running through my mind?

Did I receive any inspired actions?

Additional Notes:

Step 2. Acceptance & Attitude

To accept disappointments, fear, and sorrows so I may free myself from a past that no longer serves me, and to consciously change my attitude so that I may live the joyous life that is always available to me.

Are you prepared to release your past beliefs of unworthiness, suffering and gut-wrenching anger?

1. What is the first thing that comes to mind that you need to stop resisting and accept as is?

2. Breathe deeply and state:

I accept _____

I accept _____

I accept _____

I love myself completely for accepting that _____ happened, and I now choose to leave it in the past.

I embrace who I am today and forgive all my mistakes.

3. Identify your most nagging, negative attitudes.

4. What actions can you take to change any negative attitudes?

[illegible]

5. What are you feeling as you release the pain from the past, the old patterns, and recognize who you truly are?

[illegible]

6. List twelve things you have been grateful for in the past six months.

[illegible]

Step 3. Identification & Intention

I identify negative behaviors that block my potential, and set intentions for positive actions.

1. Get your Attraction Quadrant sheet (Page 15 of this Action Guide)
2. Identify three things you want to change in each Quadrant
3. Identify three new intentions for each Quadrant
4. Daily set one new intention in each Quadrant

We set intentions because they are more powerful than setting a goal. Intentions have your soul behind them, compared to a goal, which is not as potent.

1. How did you feel after completing the assignment for the Quadrant sheet?

2. What painful realizations did you come to that you were not aware of before?

Attraction Quadrant

Mental/Emotional

Problem	Intention	Action Steps

Spiritual

[illegible]

Physical

[illegible]

Financial/Career

[illegible]

Step 4. Thoughts

I shift my thoughts to the present when I revert to past, negative thoughts and feelings

1. Pick three new activities that will help you change your thinking patterns.

A. _____

B. _____

C. _____

2. What specific things that you think about make you feel good?

3. What thoughts do you recognize as your most frequent, self-defeating thoughts?

4. Are these thoughts linked to your past rather than to your present situation?

5. What can you do to resolve these things/thoughts in your mind?

6. Do you need to forgive yourself or someone else to feel better and to change your thinking?

7. Write three new affirmations for yourself.

8. Start your "Vision" folder by adding all the things you would like to create in your life.

Step 5. Healing & Helping

I heal by reaching out and sharing my journey with others, especially those in need.

If you have been working the Steps faithfully, you should start to feel that you are getting back your personal power. You are accepting and releasing your past mistakes and the people that caused you pain. You now know that your true identity, the divine essence that you were born with, has nothing to do with any person, place or thing from the past. You now experience a new belief system. You have the ability to create the life you desire. Now is the time to share this knowledge and to help other Women begin to tap into their power.

To continue to heal, you must reach out and help others with their journey.

1. What is the one activity or service to others that you can add to your list?

2. How do you think this will make you feel?

3. Identify one person you know personally that you could do something for that would make a difference in their life.

4. List one activity that you feel empowers you.

Now What?

I want to commend you for working through the The Self Worth Formula. If you have not yet read Alpha Chick: Five Steps for Moving from Pain to Power, you may want to read the entire book for a more detailed account of the Five Steps of FAITH process.

The book can be purchased at Amazon.com, or you can go to MalDuaneCoach.com for more information about the book, our newsletter, or our coaching services.

No matter what you decide, remember that you are meant to live a joyful and prosperous life. My mission is to help you to connect with that wonderful inner voice that can help you to achieve all that you desire.

Throughout all of this, you can fall victim to your circumstances or you can look within and find the faith to overcome them.

The choice is yours!

Taking action

While this information is fresh in your mind and while you're in an "I want to take action now" frame of mind (or close to it), take a second to click to MalDuaneCoach.com to sign up for my newsletter, which you'll discover, like this Action Guide, is full of tips and tricks and steps you can take to help you to begin to create your mental, emotional, physical, financial and spiritual journey so you can be your true Awakened, Authentic, and Abundant self.

Mal's Library of Love

I am so happy to share with you the current selections in my Library of Love. When I started my journey of recovery, I personally found great comfort in many of the books I read and audio programs to which I listened.

Because of this, I would often suggest these to other women whom I met along the way, and over time people began to ask me what I was reading or what I would recommend. Thus, over the course of many years I began to keep (and have continued to do so) a list of my top twenty-five favorites in each category. The list often changes because of the new books I read and love.

I hope it will be helpful for you, as it provides selections that you feel may enlighten and aid you in your journey of personal discovery.

Raving Fans Say

"Thanks for having me on the Telesummit yesterday, Mal. That was the deepest and most revealing multi-guest Telesummit I've been on to date. What a remarkable journey you've been on." Blessings, Brenda Adelman.

"Your website and work stands out to me as being very inspiring and interesting. It's clear that you are making a difference to many women's lives and business owners in general. I would like to invite you to further your own movement by sharing your experience and knowledge with others from my stage." Placida

"This is a grand tool to use and for women especially because we sometimes don't take the time to go into ourselves in a healthy way so as to produce healthy and godly attitudes that will help us with our busy lives, with our friends and family, also at work. Women must be eating this up like passion fruit because I know that I am. You will be in my prayers along with many women that I will be sharing this outreach to. I promote my website daily and will promote these tools you have provided, also. Not much impresses me but you and your vision do." TL.

"Things are GREAT! I've found or re-found my energy. The gratitude journal really helps! And I feel like I'm back on my stride." Debbie C.

"... that I was a hopeless romantic with low self-esteem. Wow, how insightful" that line hit me physically as well as emotionally. The jolt even surprised me! There is something in this book that makes me want to read it and at the same time I think I shouldn't be able to relate because of the extreme differences in back grounds. Hard to pick up and hard to put down...not sure I'm ready for this but think I need it. I'm pushing it aside and it pulls me back...going to take my time :). K.C.

"When I first met Mal, I was in such emotional pain. She spoke to me and I was immediately touched by her words, her transparency. She is so real, so compassionate. I felt there was no judgment on her part of my situation. She really helped me to start to understand my pain and to feel better. I feel like she is a gift from God." Rachel A.
